Our Training

The model of training that we provide primarily involves training in the classroom as well as regular focused training days delivered by current, outstanding practitioners. We believe it is important to be in an innovative environment where you are supported and challenged to reach your potential.

School Experience Programme

We have been designated for the School Experience Programme (SEP). This will give up to 10 days experience in schools observing lessons and talking to experienced teachers. Please contact us by email via info@inspiretsa.co.uk for more information or to book a place, please visit www.inspiretsa.co.uk/sep

Recruitment Events

We are holding two information events at St Philip Howard Catholic High School, Barnham, on Wed 10th December 2014 from 2-3pm and 7-8pm. You are warmly invited to attend.

The Inspire Teaching School Alliance will be delivering all training and professional development to those on the programme.

We believe this will give a rich and varied experience to prepare you for success in your career.
